Blackwood Uniting Church

Memorial Garden

The memorial garden is situated on the western side of the Church facing Coromandel Parade.

A low wall surrounds the inner part of the garden, the top surface of the wall capping provides the only area available for mounting small personal plaques.

A plaque ordering form may be obtained from the Uniting Church office at 266 Main Road, Blackwood.
Phone 8278 7699.

Ashes May be scattered in the garden if desired, privately or with your minister present. There is no provision for niches in the wall or for burying the urn or the ashes.

Space May be reserved on the wall for a future plaque if a member of the family desires it. This arrangement may be made at the Church office when lodging the order form

- A sample plaque is illustrated on the back of this brochure.
- To maintain uniformity, the plaques are to be all the same size, measuring about 200mm x 75mm
- The order form, together with the fee (payable when lodging the order) will be accepted at the Church office. Cheques are payable to Blackwood Uniting Church.
- The cost of a five line plaque is $300. this includes the cost of manufacture, fixing to the wall and GST
- Delivery time for the plaque is approximately six weeks.
