

Merry Christmas Everyone!

There are only 2 weeks left of craft classes after this week (we finish up on the 5th & 6th December) a week before school holidays start. If you are returning next year can you please fill out a Registration Form for 2019.

Next week I will put on a shared lunch for the classes to celebrate another successful year and to thank you all for your support and participation in the Craft Fair and the Community Classes in general. Just to let you know that we are back on Wednesday 30th January & Thursday 31st January 2019.

We will be holding a few informal get-togethers during the school holidays on the following dates and times:-

Friday 4th January – 10-1pm (Nancy)

Wednesday 9th January—1-3pm (Nancy)

Friday 11th January—10—1pm (Nancy)

Wednesday 16th January—1-3pm (Sue F)

Wednesday 23rd January—1-3pm (Sue F)

Friday 25th January 10-1pm (Nancy)

These classes will be run by our Needlework & Embroidery teacher Nancy Williams or Sue Fisher and held in the Coffee Lounge. The cost will be $5 per session which covers tea and coffee and power etc.

Also, if you are interested the church is having a Christmas Eve Service at 6pm and Christmas Day's Service is at 9am. Please feel welcome to come along and give thanks.

It is with sadness that I let you all know that one of our long-time students Judy Taylor passed away on Monday, 19th November. Her funeral will be on Monday 26th November – please see the Advertiser Funeral Notices for more information.

From all of us in the office, we thank you for your support throughout the year and we sincerely wish you all a joyous Christmas and New Year and we look forward to seeing you all bright and cheery next year.
